

“Hey, did you remember to sign up for the PSAT?”

What is the PSAT?

*The Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT)

It's a national standardized test administered by the College Board. It has two sections: Math & Evidence-Based Reading & Writing. You'll see passage based questions (tables, charts etc.) & math problems drawing on algebra, geometry & a little trig.

Who Takes It?

*All Sophomores and Juniors will take the PSAT on OCT. 13th. However, you can sign up and pay for the PSAT as a Freshman. This is a HUGE opportunity to become familiar with the test format, questions and timed sections of the test.

Why Should I Sign Up?

*Practice, Practice, Practice!!!

By taking the PSAT you get free access to hundreds of practice questions to get you ready for the PSAT your sophomore and junior year & the SAT.

*Information:

You can get information about and connect to colleges around the country through the free Student Search Service

*Scholarships

FREE MONEY FOR COLLEGE during your junior year. High scores can win National Merit awards.

How do I sign up?

* Just go to the ORHS webstore and click on the PSAT link. It's $15.00 for Freshmen

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: 3pm Wednesday, September 8TH

PSAT Testing Date: OCTOBER 13th
